A little Indian maiden, scarcely out of pappoosehood, will be an attractive feature of the illustrated story of Hiawatha, Tuesday night. No less attractive will be the little Indian lad who can shoot an arrow with as true an aim as cupid himself. Don't miss it. It will be both interesting and instructive, and the artistic grouping of brilliant figures can not fail to please.

Upper Sandusky Union: The barnstormer must go. A bill was introduced in the senate yesterday that all proprietors of traveling shows, from ballet dancers down to base ball players, shall get a license from the county auditor by paying sums ranging from $10 to $1,000 per day, according to the population of the counties. After a while, considering present prospects, the greatest impossibility of all will be three square meals and a straw-tick to rest the weary head.

THE SHEPHERD WEAVER.

A Large Audience at Music Hall Pay Tribute to the Deceased Warrior.

Music Hall was comfortably filled Thursday afternoon with an audience of patriotic citizens who assembled to pay tribute to the deceased General William T. Sherman. The memorial services had been arranged for by the G. A. R. Post. The stage was decorated with flags and bunting and a large portrait of the dead warrior, draped, occupied a conspicuous position.

The exercises of the afternoon were opened with prayer by Dr. Hensley, and Dr. Weeks read a biographical and eulogistic sketch of General Sherman. Prof. Powell followed with an address, in which he reviewed the life of the General on the field and in private, his characteristics and patriotism. Rev. Downer read a scriptural lesson. Rev. Wallace was unable to be present at the exercises on account of sickness, and Rev. Thomas spoke briefly on the life of Sherman, drawing therefrom a lesson of patriotism and duty in general.

The meeting closed with the doxology and benediction by Dr. Hensley. The High school and A Grammar schools were dismissed in the afternoon, giving the scholars who desired an opportunity to attend the services.

Suicide at Columbus.

John Kishler received a message this morning from Columbus, stating that W. F. Adams had been found dead in that city. Upon investigation it was learned that the body had been found in the Scioto river, and that Adams had undoubtedly taken his own life. Adams was last seen at a hotel in Columbus about Dec. 4th, since which time nothing has been heard of him, and it is believed that he had been in the river for at least two months. He was the father of Miss Mamie Adams, of this city, who lives with Mr. and Mrs. John Kishler. Miss Adams is now at Fostoria, but was telegraphed the sad news this morning. No reason is known for his rash act, although his relatives have not known much about him for the past few years. His remains were interred at Columbus this forenoon. He was at one time a resident of Mt. Gilead and his remains were taken care of and buried by his nephew, G. W. Bruce, mayor of Mt. Gilead.
